BISHOP INVITES SENIORS TO MEDICARE TOWN HALL MEETING

Congressman to Discuss Part D Open Enrollment through December 31, Changes to Plans, Improvements to Program in New Congress

INDEPENDENCE HILL—With open enrollment in the Medicare Part D program available now through the end of the year, Congressman Tim Bishop will hold a Town Hall Meeting on Thursday, December 14 at 10:00 a.m. to discuss the Medicare program. The meeting will be held in the Auditorium of Brookhaven Town Hall on Independence Hill in Farmingville.

The meeting is open to all Suffolk County residents. Following a presentation, Congressman Bishop will take questions. All seniors who attend will also receive a packet that contains information about each prescription drug plan, including benefits, contacts and premiums. Among the topics that will be discussed:

- The Part D Program is currently in an open enrollment through December 31. During this period, seniors have the option of changing plans or re-enrolling in their current plan.
- Changes in the different prescription plans from 2006 to 2007.
- Changes to the Part B Program, including the increase in the premium and the reasons behind it. A discussion of why different people will have different premiums.
- Improvements to the Medicare program which Congressman Bishop will fight for in the new Congress, including reducing the size of the doughnut hole and allowing Medicare to negotiate for better drug prices.
